

R.E.A.D. (Reading Education Assistance Dog)

Monona Public Library.

Call 222-6127 to register your child in an available time slot.

Have fun, make a new (canine) friend, and improve your reading skills. Independent readers in grades K-5 are invited to read to a socialized, experienced therapy dog with the dog owner. Children can bring their own books or choose a book from the display when you arrive. Please check books out on your library card. There are a limited number of time slots, so please check carefully that you will be able to come for the session you select. Note it on your calendar. Thankyou.

Please fill out the Registration Form and return it to the library or email to kmwendt@mononalibrary.org
